MCCLPHEI Conference and Annual Meeting 2017

Assessing and Articulating our Impact: the Role of Academic Libraries in the Institution

June 8-9, 2017
Hotel Northampton, Northampton, Massachusetts

PROGRAM
All events in Northampton Room, second floor, unless otherwise noted

Thursday, June 8

9:00 AM  Breakfast/Registration
9:30    Greetings and Announcements
9:45    Keynote: Dr. Adriene Lim
10:30 - 11:15  Q&A - discussion with Dr. Lim
Noon - 1 PM  Luncheon - Tavern Kitchen Room, Lower Level
1 PM to 2:00  Panel discussion: Working with departments of Institutional Research and Assessment, with Simon Neame (UMass Amherst), Dr. Lisa Plantefaber (Westfield State University), Tom Raffensperger (Westfield State University), and Mary Dixey (Holyoke Community College)
2:00 - 2:15  Break
2:15 - 3:15  Symposium: From the pre-conference survey of members, several questions consistently arose:
  • To what extent are comparative data useful, how does it overlap with existing surveys, and what should MCCLPHEI members collect?
  • How can we be targeted and efficient with data collection and reporting?
  • How useful are surveys? Are they worth the investment?

- over -
4:15 - 5:00  Time to explore Northampton. Places to see include: the Smith College campus with beautiful gardens and Paradise Pond; walking trails from Paradise Pond along the Mill River; shopping on Main Street including Raven Used Books and Broadside Bookshop; Forbes Library; Thornes Marketplace. Roost or the Haymarket Café are good places for afternoon coffee.

5:30  Cocktails in Wiggins Pub

6:30  Dinner in the Tavern Kitchen

Friday June 9

8:30 AM  Breakfast - Tavern Kitchen

9:00  Section meetings (location for each section to be announced)

10:15  Business meeting

Noon  Luncheon, Tavern Kitchen