Comments: Donated by Jeanne Julian, President's Office, March 28, 2005. These photographs look like progress photographs. Some were taken by the photographer for Stanhome, Inc. and some look like they were taken by a contractor.

These came in a white binder but were moved to an archival box due to preservation issues. This building was purchased by Westfield State on March 2, 1999. The first employee group to move in to the new space took place on June 2, 2000. This building was known as "333" until it received it's official name as "The Horace Mann Center."
